W.P.No.3563 of 1999

ORDER

This is a case where the petitioner (since died) involved in a criminal case and therefore, he was suspended from service in view of the fact that he was in judicial custody for more than 48 hours. Learned counsel for the petitioner states that subsequently the petitioner was acquitted of the charges framed against him. Further, the petitioner also took voluntary retirement and died thereafter.

In view of the same, nothing survives for further adjudication in this writ petition. Therefore, the writ petition is dismissed as infructuous. No costs.
